

Name: _____

Date: _____

Food: Compare and Contrast

Directions: A Venn diagram helps you compare (find things that are the same) and contrast (find things that are different) two or more items. Write the name of each food from the chart above in the three circles below. Fill out the intersections of the circle with facts and details that are the same; write the facts that are different for each food on the outer parts of the circles.

